

Do not loosen the current FCC regulations. Doing this would go against the very idea of what being an American is supposed to stand for- freedom of choice and freedom of access. if you allow the regulations to change, there will only be a handful of huge corporations controlling what we hear and see in the news and on radio. this is wrong! Don't even consider it!